RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE CHARITIES® OF TULSA SET TO CELEBRATE 25th McDAZZLE WITH ACM NEW ARTIST OF THE YEAR JUSTIN MOORE

50th Anniversary Ford Mustang to be Given Away to One of 2,500 Ticket Holders

Tulsa, Okla. — The Ronald McDonald House of Tulsa will be celebrating the 25th anniversary of their annual McDazzle Fun Ball with a performance by Academy of Country Music New Artist of the Year Justin Moore.

“McDazzle has raised over 2 million dollars for RMH Tulsa families who travel to the city seeking medical treatment,” Jean Ann Hankins, RMH Executive Director, said. “As we plan to celebrate the 25th McDazzle Fun Ball, we want to thank the Tulsa community for their support so we can help families in highly stressful situations of caring for a sick or injured child.”

The event will take place on September 25 at the Cox Business Center. There will be an acoustic show by Moore, a gourmet dinner prepared by Chef Devin Levine, and a live auction.

A 50th Anniversary Ford Mustang GT 5.0 will also be raffled to one of the 2,500 ticket holders. The 2015 Ford Mustang is one of only 1,964 to be manufactured. The opportunity to raffle the limited-edition automobile is thanks to a partnership with Bill Knight Ford.

There are only 2,500 tickets available and Moore will be drawing the winner at the McDazzle Fun Ball.
