Third Party Event Fundraiser Guidelines

Thank you for choosing the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Tulsa, Inc. (RMHC Tulsa) as the beneficiary of your fundraiser. We are grateful that you have decided to generously lend you support to our mission of keeping families close to their critically ill or injured children. The Ronald McDonald House of Tulsa benefits tremendously from community involvement and welcomes fundraisers from supportive individuals and groups like you.

As Ronald McDonald House Charities is a globally recognized charity and is under licensing agreements and restrictions, we ask that you read and agree to the following fundraiser guidelines to assure clear communication between you and the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Tulsa and help ensure the success of your event.

- Ronald McDonald House Charities of Tulsa is proud of its public service record and is responsible for retaining it. For that reason, our name and logo can only be used in activities that are compatible with our mission, and we require that you submit all print/online material, press releases, or advertisements to RMHC Tulsa for approval before releasing them to the public.
- Please consult with the RMHC Tulsa Director of Development before seeking underwriting or sponsorship by a company/group in order to honor any pre-established relationships RMHC Tulsa may have with that company/group.
- Being a non-profit with limited resources, RMHC Tulsa cannot provide funding or volunteers for your fundraising event – but will make every effort to participate.
- Please keep the RMHC Tulsa Director of Development aware of any changes to your fundraising event as originally presented.
- RMHC Tulsa staff and its Board of Directors retain the right to revoke or terminate, at any time, any authorization it may give for the use of the RMHC Tulsa name/logo.

We truly appreciate your support of the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Tulsa through your fundraising efforts. We will help foster the success of your event as much as possible.
